

MEDIA ADVISORY

November 12, 2015

Contact:

Melissa Mann, 207-620-8811, melissa@maineconservation.org

Maine Conservation Voters to Honor Senator Roger Katz, Reverend Lennox Yearwood to Speak at Annual Event

Portland, ME: On Thursday, November 12, 2015, Maine Conservation Voters will host its 13th Annual Evening for the Environment at the Ocean Gateway. Senator Roger Katz will be honored with the Harrison L. Richardson Environmental Leadership Award for his work to release voter-approved funding for the Land for Maine's Future program. Reverend Lennox Yearwood, President and CEO of the Hip Hop Caucus, is the keynote speaker.

Who: Reverend Lennox Yearwood, President of the Hip Hop Caucus
Senator Roger Katz (R-Augusta)

What: The Evening for the Environment will bring together a diverse crowd of lawmakers, business leaders, conservationists, students, and activists from across the state to celebrate the past year's environmental accomplishments. Ticked fee is waived for members of the press.

When: Thursday, November 12th, 5:30pm – 8:00pm

 Reverend Yearwood will be available to speak with the press from 4:00pm-5:00pm at the Ocean Gateway venue prior to the event

Where: Ocean Gateway, 14 Maine State Pier, Portland, ME 04101

Maine Conservation Voters is a statewide, nonpartisan organization that plays a critical role in turning public support for conservation into new laws that protect our air, land, water, and wildlife. As a result of successful campaign strategies, a focused policy agenda, and sharp accountability tools, we are building Maine's environmental movement into a powerful political force. www.maineconservation.org

###